Loved seeing you guys today! Ricky is adorable!

I hope you were pleased with Chips progress! We love him so much...he is so stinking SMART and confident!

Can't get over how different they look from each other! The vet thinks Chip is a PERFECT representation of the American Brittany!

Hello Nancy & Bob,

We will be in Springfield tomorrow morning (to deliver Ricky). If you are going to be home, maybe we could see Chip?

Should be at Alexandra's house between 9:30 and 10:00a.

Hope all is going well with you.
